City of Los Angeles - Tobacco Retailer's Permit Application Required Affirmations

Tobacco retailers are responsible for reviewing and complying with all laws pertaining to tobacco sales and distribution in the City of Los Angeles. The list below includes key provisions tobacco retailers must follow but this is not an exhaustive list. It is the tobacco retailer's responsibility to ensure that they are in compliance with ALL applicable federal, state and local tobacco related laws. Please review and initial each section below, and sign the acknowledgement at the end of the document to indicate your understanding.

It is illegal to furnish tobacco products to any person under the age of 21. Unlawful furnishing of tobacco products to a person under the age of 21 will lead to Tobacco Permit suspension and repeated violations will result in permanent Tobacco Permit revocation.	Initial: _____
Tobacco products cannot be sold without asking for a valid ID	Initial: _____
Tobacco retailing is prohibited from the following places: residences, newsstands, non-permanent locations (such as vehicles or carts), and at any location licensed for commercial cannabis activity.	Initial: _____
All tobacco retailing is to be conducted in-person. Retail delivery sales of tobacco products are prohibited in the City of Los Angeles.	Initial: _____
The retail sale of flavored tobacco products is prohibited in the City of Los Angeles.	Initial: _____
Non-compliance with smoking prohibitions will lead to Tobacco Permit suspension. Obtaining a Tobacco Retailer's Permit does not authorize any illegal smoking (including hookah smoking) in indoor workplaces in violation of the California Labor Code 6404.5(c) or in outdoor dining areas in violation of LAMC 41.50 (B).	Initial: _____
All tobacco retailers in the City of Los Angeles are subject to regular law enforcement inspections. Investigations will be conducted to identify illegal underage sales, indoor smoking violations, non-compliance with Tobacco Permit requirements, and all other tobacco related offenses. Violations can lead to both Tobacco Permit suspension and criminal prosecution.	Initial: _____
